

PixelWave SmartQuote SaaS Platform

An AI-powered operating system for agencies. Turn messy WhatsApp messages and emails into professional, interactive quotations in seconds.

SaaS Monetization Strategy

1. Standalone SaaS Tier

Sell access to the platform on a monthly subscription basis (e.g., $49/mo). Ideal for freelancers, small agencies, and service providers who need a white-labeled, smart quotation system to streamline their sales pipeline.

2. Premium Website Bundle

Use SmartQuote as an exclusive value-add for your high-ticket web development clients. "We don't just build your website; we provide the AI engine to handle the leads it generates." Increases your upfront project value significantly.

Platform Architecture

AI Data Extraction

Integrate with Gemini/Claude to read raw client messages. The AI automatically extracts product size, quantity, materials, and calculates pricing based on predefined rules.

Multi-Tenant DB

Built on Supabase with strict Row Level Security (RLS). Every agency gets their own isolated workspace, custom branding, and custom domain configuration.

Smart Approvals

Generate interactive web links instead of static PDFs. Clients can view, sign, and approve online, instantly triggering webhooks to your n8n or project management tools.

The Command Center

Agency Dashboard UI

A centralized hub designed for conversion optimization.
Users can track their entire quotation pipeline at a glance.

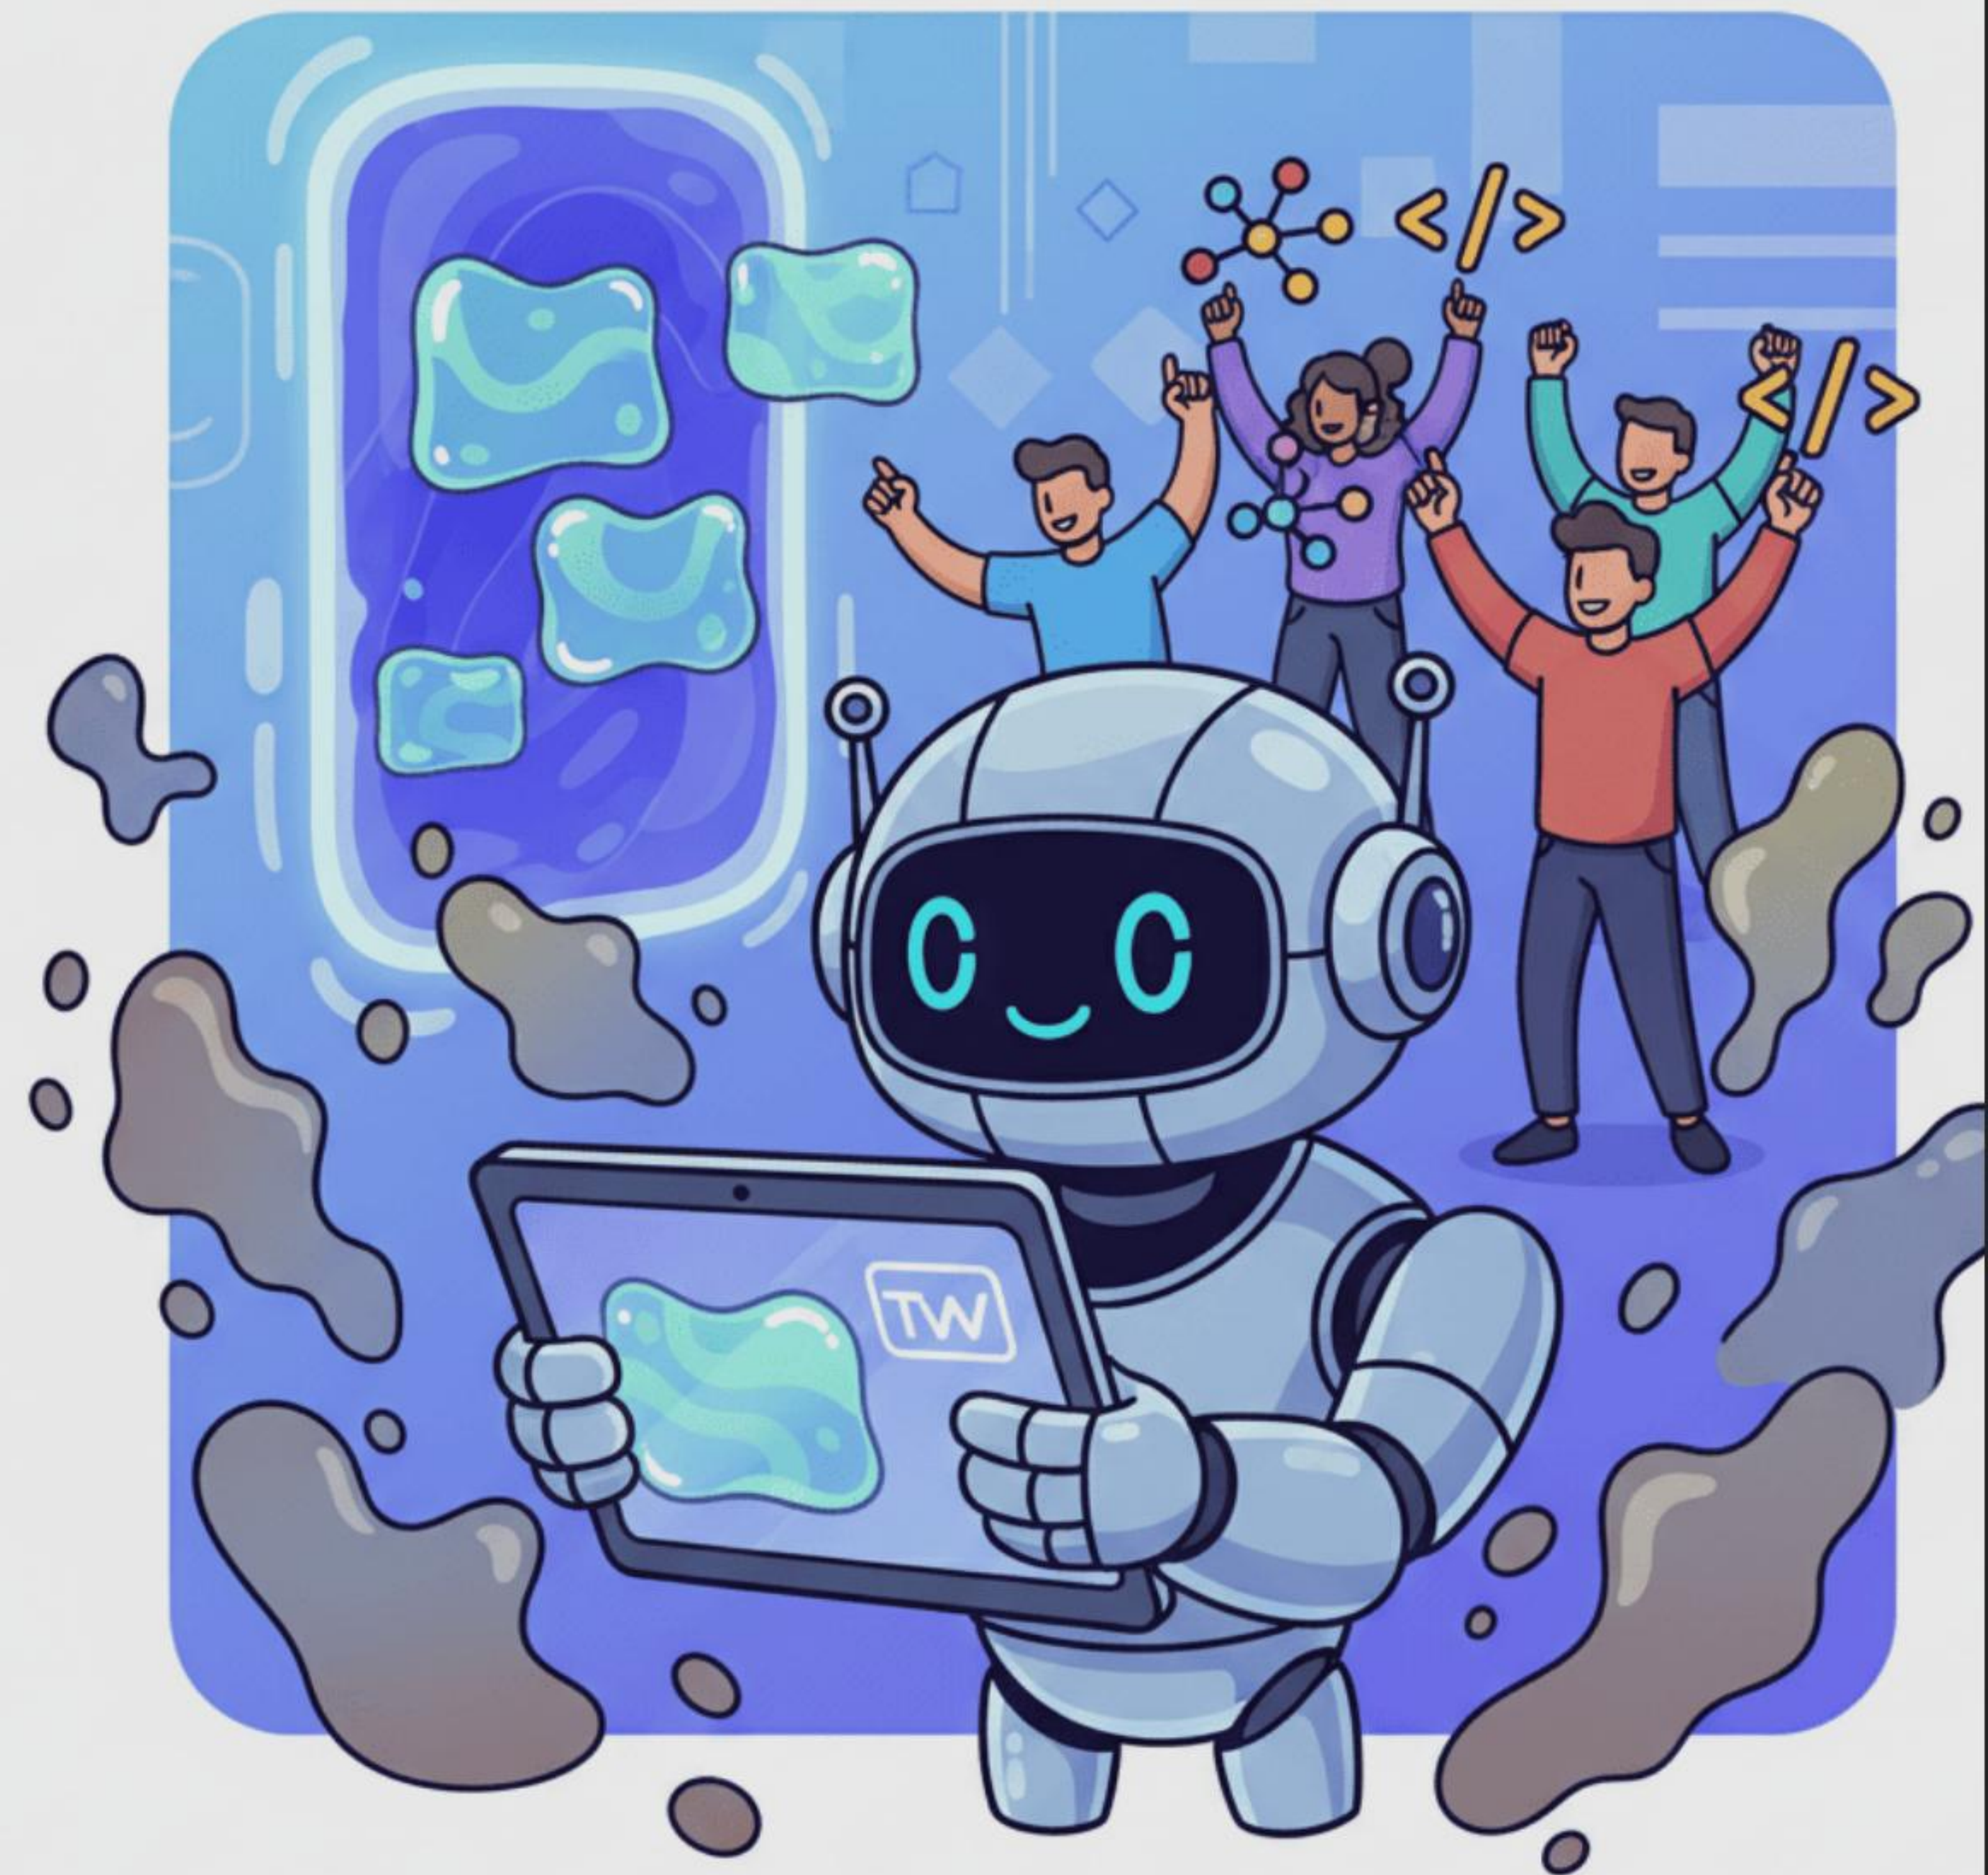

- ✓ Live Win Rate Analytics
- ✓ Pending Approvals Tracker
- ✓ Revenue Forecasting
- ✓ Dark Mode Native Interface

AI Quote Builder

Split-Screen Workflow

The core innovation. Paste a messy client email on the left, and watch the AI instantly generate a structured, itemized quotation on the right.

- ⚡ Zero Manual Data Entry
- ✂️ AI Context Understanding
- 👁️ Real-time Visual Preview

Client-Facing Portal

Interactive & Frictionless

Ditch the PDF attachments. Send clients a secure link to a mobile-optimized page where they can review terms and approve with one click.

-  100% Mobile Responsive
-  Digital Signature Capture
-  Integrated Payment Gateway

The Value Proposition

80%

Faster Quote Generation

By eliminating manual data entry and leveraging AI for pricing extraction, agencies save hours every week. This translates directly into faster response times to clients, significantly increasing the probability of closing the deal.
